

Easy as A-B-C

Give students a hands-on option for practicing their letters with this card set. You'll get alphabet cards, a practice card, and 36 Wikki Stix to use again and again. Cards have directional arrows to teach proper letter formation. Ages 3 and up, $14.65. Wikki Stix, wikkistix.com.

FREE! Load up on activities.

Vocabulary Made Visual

This web-based, visual vocabulary program uses Semantic Reasoning. The new approach to vocabulary instruction has students actively infer the meaning of words based on seeing multiple images that illustrate the word in different contexts. Grades 1–12, prices start at $24 a month for one teacher and 40 students. InferCabulary, infercabulary.com.

FREE! See how it works at infercabulary.com.

FREEBIE

Write On!

This online writing tool for grades K–8 lets you choose from thousands of free interactive lessons that are proven to boost student motivation, develop a growth mindset, and inspire student writing. Learn more at nightzookeeper.com/teachers.

Stories From the East

This collection of Arabian folk tales takes you into the fascinating world of the East. The book includes an Arabic glossary and coloring pages. Ages 4–8, $25.

NorthSouth Books, simonandschuster.com.

SNEAK PEEK! Look inside the book.

How to enter: Circle Reader Action number 102 on page 25 or go to LearningMagazine.com.

Deadline: December 1, 2018

Learn more about the books plus how to arrange a school visit from author Alane Adams at: alaneadams.com/school-visits

WIN!

The Blue Witch

Number of winners: one lucky teacher

The prize: one themed gift box including author Alane Adams' The Blue Witch and surprise gifts. The Blue Witch is for ages 7–10. The book costs $12.95.

Did you know?

Almost half of readers say they are reading more now than they were five years ago.

—ThriftBooks reader survey